

Seattle Children's Theatre, Drama School

Position Title: Choreography Intern

Description:

- This summer, Seattle Children's Theatre Drama School will produce a Summer Season of six productions in the 485-seat Charlotte Martin Theatre at Seattle Center, including two one-act plays, one full-length play, two one-act musicals and one full-length musical. These productions feature student actors directed by teaching artists, and are designed, built, and run by professional SCT staff working alongside student interns and volunteer assistants.
- We are seeking one choreography intern for our 2019 Summer Season. The choreography intern will learn about choreography in the theatre by assisting the directing teams for the one-act and full-length musicals and may also learn about providing choreography as necessary for the non-musical plays. The intern's role may also include warming up, coaching actors and dance instruction.
- Training and Support: Throughout the summer interns meet regularly to share experiences and receive ongoing coaching and support from the staff. Interns will also have the opportunity to attend professional development sessions.

Time commitment: The choreography internship will run approximately July 1 – August 11. Monday – Friday, some weekend hours may be expected. Rehearsals are in the evening from 1:00 - 9:30pm. Technical rehearsals are between the hours of 9:00am – 9:30pm beginning July 22. Performances on weekend evenings. All working hours are subject to change.

Qualifications: The ideal candidate for this position will have a minimum of two years of college, choreography experience in a college or a professional environment, or demonstrate equivalent experience. The position also requires extensive dance background, musical theatre experience, and experience working with youth.

Stipend: $200/week, plus compensation for a bus or parking pass. Housing is not provided; we try to provide out-of-town interns with suitable housing leads.

Application Deadline: 11:59pm PST, February 12, 2019

To apply, please first complete our application survey. You will be prompted to provide your contact information, educational background, and the names, emails, and phone number of two references.

Once you've completed the survey, email the following attachments to Associate Director of Education, Drama School, Laura Knote at internships@sct.org.

1. Cover letter – address your particular interests and goals in regards to the internship.
2. Resume – outline your theatrical and dance background, as well as your experience working with youth.

SCT is an equal opportunity organization. We value a diverse workforce and an inclusive culture. We are committed to diversity in all areas of our work and encourage applications from all qualified individuals without regard to race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, age, national origin, marital status, citizenship, disability, and veteran status. We strongly encourage applications from members of underrepresented groups.

The stipend payments associated with this internship are designed to offset some of the food, housing and transportation costs associated with the internship. Intern stipends are not wages and are not related to the number of hours worked by the intern trainee. Internships at SCT are designed primarily to provide training to the intern trainee, for the benefit of that intern trainee. Please check with your college or university to see whether college credit is available for this opportunity.
