FINANCIAL AID INFORMATION SHEET • 2017/2018

Seattle Children's Theatre Drama School is pleased to be able to offer financial aid in the form of scholarships and payment plans.

Scholarships will be granted to those families who demonstrate a strong financial need, and who would be otherwise unable to participate in our classes. We base our eligibility criteria on the guidelines established by the HUD Income Guidelines for King County. Financial aid is disbursed on a sliding scale – eligible families generally receive scholarships covering between 20%-70% of tuition. All families, with exceptions granted only in the most extreme cases, will be required to pay a minimum of 30% of tuition costs. Because of budget limitations, we are generally only able to cover one class per student per session in each eligible family.

Payment Plans may be taken advantage of by anyone, regardless of financial need. This option is available to families who prefer to split their balance into two or three installments. No application is required; if you would like to arrange a payment plan, simply call the Drama School at (206) 443-0807 ext. 1186.

Families applying for financial aid MUST be registered for a class or camp and submit a minimum deposit of $25 per class, $50 per full-day camp or $100 per CAST registration or performance program per student at the time of application before a financial aid determination can be made. This amount secures the student's place in the class while the financial aid application is under consideration. This deposit is refundable only if you are unable to accept the financial aid award because the amount is insufficient. You will be notified of your financial aid decision within a week after the application deadline. Unless prior arrangements are made with Joanna Barnebey, Education Business Manager, the balance of tuition, if any, must be paid in full prior to the start of class.
