

Seattle Children's Theatre, Drama School

Position Title: Summer Season Sound Assistant

---

Summer Season Description:

This summer, Seattle Children's Theatre Drama School will produce a Summer Season of six productions in the 485-seat Charlotte Martin Theatre at Seattle Center, including two one-act plays, one full-length play, two one-act musicals and one full-length musical. These productions feature student actors directed by teaching artists, and are designed, built, and run by professional SCT staff working alongside student interns and volunteer assistants.

Position Description:

We are seeking one volunteer Sound Assistant for Summer Season 2019, to learn about and assist with building sound cues, running sound and mixing boards, and placing and maintaining speakers, microphones and other sound equipment. This assistant will work on all four Summer Season shows, supervised and mentored by our Summer Season Sound Designer and Technical Coordinator. The Sound Assistant will also have run crew responsibilities.

Throughout the summer, interns and assistants will meet regularly to share experiences and receive ongoing coaching and support from the staff. SCT will help arrange credit for community service hours on request.

Time Commitment: June 24 – August 11 full-time. Hours will vary week by week; there will be evening and weekend hours.

Qualifications: Minimum 2 years of high school required, and one year of experience with technical theatre, including some sound and run crew experience.

Application Deadline: 11:59pm PST on March 19, 2019

To Apply: Please complete our application survey. You will be prompted to provide your contact information, educational background, reasons for applying, and the name, email, and phone number of one reference.

No drop-ins or physical mailings please.
